GOALS. VISIONS.

Ever since I got involved in the design & development sector for the web, I've always wanted to make the content as accessible as possible, yet experiment with different styles of work.

Even though I hold quite some projects to my name..

The fun has just begun.

SKILLS & TOOLS.

Design

Adobe Creative Suite CS5

I design most of my artworks, graphics, layouts and other interfaces using Adobe Photoshop, Adobe Illustrator or Adobe Flash, depending on the required result.

Code

MacRabbit Espresso

Smart SVN

I prefer to hand code beautiful websites on XHTML+CSS (maybe including some awesome javascripts) using MacRabbit's Espresso.

To manage my code on the SVN I use Smart SVN.

RECENT EMPLOYERS.

DREAMSQUEST

May 2005 - April 2006

Senior Web Designer

My responsibilities included design and front end development for various projects, it also required me to manage a two junior web designers team in order to maintain quality in the products.

RECENT EMPLOYERS.

CREATIVE CHAOS

November 2007 - August 2008

Front End Developer

My job at Creative Chaos involved more front end code than design. I looked over the HTML + CSS + UI Javascripts, and made sure everything was platform independent.

MY REPUTATION.

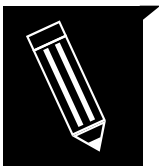

You had a very interesting vision for it that I really didn't think of.

From my point of view, I would recommend you to all the people out there, who require media services.

David Frank

Director, Young & Vulnerable Years.
Turn Forward Productions 2K5

Shahzad Khan is a the youngest, most naturally talented artist with whom I've worked. Someone who is not afraid to take chances in fear of rejection, listens to his instinct, takes what others say into consideration in an impersonal fashion, and is persistent in perfecting his work are all qualities of a true artist. Shahzad has all these qualities and a true artist he is!

Andre N. Anton

Producer, Assyrian - The Struggle for identity
Lamassu Productions

Agencies get helpless sometimes. The same happened with us in Sep 09', when our Creative Manager had to leave on a short notice. Overloaded with tons of work, Shahzad Khan proved to be a true savior.

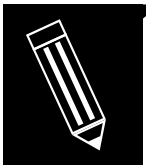

Equipped with the craft that's much needed in every Creative Hotshop, his speed & superior aesthetic sense pulled us out of an absolute mess within a short contractual span of 3 days.

Hats Off!

CEO, FS&C International Division
M&T Group of Companies

Having worked with Shahzad on both a project and permanent basis, across two companies, I can safely say that he is a class act and a rare talent. He has a great eye for design and usability and is passionate about what he does, to boot. Grade-A new media person!
