

100 DAYS, 100 WAYS

An opportunity to transform the memory of a horrific event into a shining example of God's grace.

April 6th marks the 16 year anniversary of the Rwandan genocide in which a million people were slaughtered in 100 days while the world stood by. Land of a Thousand Hills is launching the 100 Days, 100 Ways campaign in honor of those who have passed and in the hope of encouraging the world to focus on the GOOD God is doing in Rwanda: the redemption, hope, forgiveness, and reconciliation that is occurring each day.

For the next 100 Days, we will be providing 100 Ways for you to educate yourself, impact our friends in Rwanda, and be in community with others.

THE FIRST FIVE:

1. Pray for continued peace in Rwanda.
2. Read the book "Left to Tell." Be encouraged by the strength of a woman who survived the Rwandan Holocaust.
3. Do a random act of kindness, share it with us on Twitter and Facebook.
4. Watch the movie Hotel Rwanda.
5. Buy a bag of Rwandan coffee and take it to a neighbor you want to reach out to.
