WORK EXPERIENCE

Senior Lead Program Manager, Exchange Mobile Client and ActiveSync Team, Microsoft Corporation, Redmond, WA Nov 2009-
Developing Exchange's mobile clients, which include Outlook Mobile for Windows Phone and Office Mobile for Nokia. Also part of the ActiveSync team that provides Exchange sync capabilities to the iPhone, Android, Nokia, and Windows Phone devices.

Senior Lead Program Manager, KIN phone, Microsoft Jun 2007-Managed the Communications PM team (social networking, email, text Nov 2009 messaging, phone) for the KIN phone.

Senior Lead Program Manager and Technical Strategy Planner, Windows Mobile, Microsoft May 2002-Managed three full-time Program Managers in the PIM area (Contacts, Jun 2007 Calendar, Tasks, Notes) of Windows Mobile. Previously served as the Technical Strategy Planner (TSP) for the Product Unit Manager of Outlook Mobile, a ~100 person group that developed the messaging, PIM, and Office applications of Windows Mobile. As TSP, I investigated group-wide technical and business strategy questions, and then presented my proposals to the VP for approval.

Lead Program Manager, MSN Search, Microsoft Dec 1999-Managed two full-time employees. Drove complete site redesign for May 2002 one MSN Search release, including most of the UI and a major rearchitecture to use XML/XSL for rendering flexibility. Independently coded improvements to the banner ad sales tool, improving FY01 revenue. Maintained technical relationships with external customers. Helped close significant MSN Search ad and distribution deals with RealNames, Keen.com, and others.

Lead Program Manager, Internet Explorer, Microsoft Jul 1997-
Managed one full-time employee for MSN Explorer, a division of Dec 1999
Internet Explorer. My features included Web search, MSN Messenger integration, the address bar, window management, and the integrated media player.
