

A Concert of Music and Play with Jim Gill

JIM GILL, an award-winning musician and author, offers more than a show to watch. It's an opportunity for active play!

In concert, Jim bangs out energetic rhythms on his banjo while everyone claps, jumps, dances and even sneezes along to the silly and inspiring musical games that he creates.

Concerts also feature opportunities for the "read-along and sing-along" play that Jim uniquely conveys in his books.

But the key ingredients in each concert are the active participation and the interactions between children and caring adults. These make each concert a celebration of music and play!

JIM GILL is a musician and author with unique credentials among children's artists. Jim is a child development specialist, completing his graduate studies in child development at the Erikson Institute of Chicago with a special emphasis on the study of play. For this reason, each of Jim's recordings and books is created as an opportunity for playful interactions between a child and a caring adult. Anyone who has experienced one of Jim's concerts knows that rather than performing for the children and caregivers, Jim leads them to sing and play together.
