I understand that admittance and enrollment in MCL’s Master of Legal Studies degree program does not entitle me to practice law nor does it qualify me to sit for a bar exam. Further, I understand that courses taken during enrollment in the M.L.S. program cannot be transferred or counted in the Juris Doctorate degree program.

I have read the information setting forth Monterey College of Law's requirements, curriculum, tuition, and refund policies, and I understand that that information is subject to change without notice. I certify that all information contained in this application is true and correct.
