

Big Help Mob

Big Help Mob Film Co-Producer/Director – A skilled film-maker who loves managing people and gets excited by the idea of using film to redefine how volunteering is perceived by young people. Egos should be tumble-dried, shredded and thrown in the recycling before applying.

So what will I be doing for 15 hours per week?

- (Initially) Working closely with the Big Help Mob Mafia (leadership team), and Big Help Mob's existing film team to "learn the ropes" and meet relevant Youth Tree volunteer staff.
- Work with Creative Co-Director and to create clear, detailed artistic visions for film projects and production plans to make them happen
- Working with the film crew to produce innovative, high-impact marketing material, documentaries and evaluative material to share the impact we are having with the world
- Collaborating with entire team on the visioning, creation and production of the Big Help Mob toolkit – a hilarious but informative multimedia series of Youtube videos, templates, animations, blogs (and whatever other mediums are useful) that will creatively communicate the "recipe" for making a Big Help Mob, so that any group of young people in the world can make a Big Help Mob in their community
- Directing and coordinating the film crew on shoots (sound and camera operators)
- Reporting to the Big Help Mob Mafia on the progress of productions
- Recruiting and managing other film volunteers to fill skills and time gaps with support from the Big Help Mob Mafia
- Ensuring volunteer film crew is well-prepared for shoots and are familiar with key dates in the production schedule
- Directing post-production from capturing right through to "Youtubifying" of footage

Successful applicants will:

- Be passionate about making volunteering as mainstream as cheeseburgers and breathing
- Be aiming for industry standard in their work
- Have excellent people skills
- Have both broad and deep knowledge of pre-production, production and post-production
- Be happy to collaborate with and learn from others, share ideas, expertise and workload
- Be passionate about learning and self-improvement
- Have a high level of integrity, professionalism, commitment to improvement and attention to detail

Please Note: The role of Co-Director may be shared by multiple people with the same title and role, collaborating with each other as equals. Also, this is not an exhaustive position description. It is a suggestion of the areas you will be involved in and could certainly change. Youth Tree is a dynamic environment and Youth Tree staff will need to be flexible, self-motivated, creative, willing to take ownership of their position and willing to try new things. Hence Youth Tree values people with:

- A sense of humour
- A genuine desire to do good in the world
- Attention to detail
- Humility
- Creativity (creativity doesn't mean you have to be good at painting... it's very broad)
- An interest and fascination in the world and in their own field of work
- Persistence and patience
- Genuine friendliness, willingness to share and collaborate
- Love of stupidity and an uncanny willingness to participate in cartwheel contests etc at formal events
- A willingness to be a leader
