Dinner and a Message: Give Me a Break. Free Dinner @ 645, Free Message @ 730

Thursday's Dinner and a Message will be the first of a three-part series called Give Me a Break. A break from what, you ask? Well, how many things overwhelm you? Marc is talking about stress, the past, the future, anything that is oppressive and holding you back. So come out Thursday and bring your friends!

(Trivia is starting this week too, so get your team together! We'll have 3 weeks of trivia and a grand winner at the end. No more than 8 per team, trivia starts right after Dinner and a Message!)

This Weekend:

Women's Lakehouse Getaway, Friday to Saturday

Ladies, you're packing up and heading to Laura's lakehouse Friday afternoon! It's an awesome mountain cabin right on the lake and it is gorgeous. Pack WARM clothes, it's cold in the mountains! Also pack a sleeping bag and whatever toiletries you want, and a bathing suit if you're feeling especially brave (I recommend the midnight freeze-out swim party). It'll cost $5, plus gas money for your driver and money for dinner on the way up. Let Sarah Thomas or Sarah Rospond know if you're coming.

Men's ACC Getaway, Friday to Saturday

Guys, we're heading to our very own Bobby Weaver's alma mater, Atlanta Christian Cottage, for a night of video games/poker/sports in their gym. Dinner is on the way at the Dwarf House, aka the Original Chik-Fil-A! You'll be back Saturday around noon, bring sleeping bag, pillow, etc, and bring money for dinner! Cost is $8. Let Beau, Bobby, or Jason know you're coming!

Game on the Big Screen, UGA v. Arizona State, Kickoff is at 745 PM

Come watch the game with your friends! Bring your own meat for the grill, we have some buns and snacks. See ya Saturday!

CCF Day @ ACC, Meet @ CCF @ 930 AM

Athens Christian Church has loved CCFers for years, and they'd like to have us all out to enjoy their service on Sunday morning and then eat lunch with them! Come to CCF for breakfast Sunday morning at 930 AM, then we'll carpool to church together, stay for lunch (mmm, church lady food and casseroles galore), and be back early afternoon!

Co-Rec Flag Football, Sundays at 430 PM

The guys and girls are undefeated! Join the winning team Sunday for their second game at 430 at the IM fields. Contact Sean Chiang (770-289-3021) for more info.

Other Cool Stuff:

Reach Internships, All Over the World, Beginning in 2010

From May 26 to July 31, 2010, you can make a difference in the world by helping other nations access clean water and by representing Jesus Christ to those nations. This is an incredible opportunity to spend part of your summer growing, learning, and helping other people. Applications are due December 11, 2009! If you're interested, ask the staff for more info or contact Shannon Clements, Associate Mobilizer for Reach, at shannonclements@cmfi.org or 317-284-6039.

Becca's Babbling

Dear CCF Nation:

In case you haven't heard the news, Patrick Swayze has died at age 57. This makes me pretty sad because I pretty much fell in love with him when I was a little girl and I always cried when he drove away at the end of Dirty Dancing. In other news, I've become completely addicted to FarmVille, which is a Facebook application that's all about planting things and harvesting them and growing cows and stuff. I am currently the proud owner of two cows, some birds, a bunch of crops, and some trees. There's also a sign that says "There's something going on in the cow pasture" because it looks like one of my cows is, well, you know. Something weird. I also recently decided that I'm sick of watching it rain outside, so I decided to make a list of some of my favorite movies for my next rainy day movie marathon.

Grant of the Dead

Grant Clark is having many problems in life. His long-time girlfriend, Allison Rohan, has dumped him due to their almost-daily expedition to Grant's favorite pub, Walker's. His temporary management job isn't going well at Foree Electronics, with his subordinates not even giving him the time of day. His deadbeat flatmates, Jared Price and Scott Lowe, are at each others' throats. And, oh yeah, Athens is overrun with multitudes of zombies. In the midst of this, he must save himself, Jared, his ex Allison, his mom, and his precious record collection. There is a time when a hero must rise...from his couch.

Muppet Treasure Island

After telling the story of Suzanne Timmon's last journey to young Megan Mason, Steven Mathew has a heart attack and dies just as Megan and her friends are attacked by pirates. The gang escapes into the town where they convince Squire Jen Fowler to hire out a boat and crew to find the hidden treasure, which was revealed by Steven before he died. On their voyage across the seas, they soon find out that not everyone on board can be trusted.

Willy Wonka and the Chocolate Factory

Evander Baker, a poor boy who is barely able to support his family, is fortunate to be chosen as one of the 5 people to go inside the most popular and powerful chocolate factory in the world: The Sarah Stone Chocolate Factory. But a stranger, named Clay Rushing, tempts the kids to steal a piece of candy and give it to him. In exchange, he will make them rich. Sarah Stone soon introduces them to the factory, and starts the grand tour around the factory. Once inside, the 5 winners start to run amuck. One by one, the 5 kids start to disappear, until it is only Evander that remains. At this point, Sarah starts to ignore Evander, and then tells him why: because Evander and Grandpa Joe drank some forbidden product without permission. Will Evander turn against Sarah? Or will he discover that he was wrong and make up what he has done?

That's it for this week. Head out to the Men's and Women's Getaways this weekend, watch the Game on the Big Screen Saturday, and go to Athens Christian Church with us on Sunday!
