Focus on the Bible commentaries are popular level commentaries especially useful for pastors and small group leaders. They are also useful for personal devotions and spiritual growth. Many of the authors of the commentaries are leading expositors of God's Word on their speciality subjects. The series holds to the inerrancy of scripture and the uniqueness of Christ in salvation.

"They will not only help you to more effectively minister to God's people, but they will also minister to your own soul. I commend them to anyone who is called to preach God's Word." – Rev. Anthony T. Selvaggio, preacher, author and Visiting Professor of Biblical Studies at the Reformed Presbyterian Theological Seminary in Pittsburgh, PA.

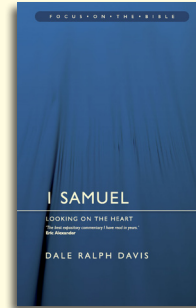

Acts NEW
Witnesses to Him
Bruce Milne – well-respected pastor and theologian and was pastor of First Baptist Church, Vancouver, Canada
Are you ready to go on a journey, which could change your life? Acts records the exciting and historical story of those who served as witnesses to him and the impact as they sought to see the establishment of the Christian Church throughout the known world in the first century. It grew despite inner problems and outward conflict. Acts provides principles and lessons for contemporary churches to imitate.

Judges
Such a Great Salvation
Dale Ralph Davis – pastor of Woodland Presbyterian Church, Hattiesburg, Mississippi.
Judges is a book full of characters such as Samson, Gideon and Deborah, but the key person in this book is Yahweh who offers such a great salvation to the Israelite people. He shows such grace even when they choose to turn away from him and when there is no human leadership placed over them. If you have found Judges difficult to stomach in the past then Ralph Davis makes Judges digestible by providing a 'theocentric' exposition.

I Samuel
Looking on the Heart
Dale Ralph Davis
"This is an excellent example of how to make good quality exegesis accessible to the ordinary Christian. The style is informal and certainly user-friendly. The commentary is full of idiom, imagery and illustrations while never straying far from the essence of the text itself" Mary Evans, Northwood Anvil "...the most practical expository work that this reviewer has ever encountered."

Southwestern Journal of Theology "A great feast of biblical truth made so digestible, garnished with so many apt illustrations." Alec Motyer
ISBN 978-1-85792-516-6 | 336 Pages | £8.99 $14.99

I Kings
The Wisdom and the Folly
Dale Ralph Davis
1 Kings is a continuation of a narrative of the history of Israel, which begins in 1 Samuel and continues through into 1 & 2 Kings. While we so often struggle with the events and issues of the book of 1st Kings, Ralph Davis helps us to see how it can apply to the contemporary settings of the 21st century. As usual Ralph Davis uses pastoral application and laces it with his own sense of humour. He is noted for tackling scholarship head on.

Jonah, Micah, Nahum, Habakkuk & Zephaniah
God's Just Commands
John L. Mackay – Old Testament Scholar at the Free Church College, Edinburgh, Scotland
The major prophetic themes of the destruction of Israel's enemies, the judgment of God upon Israel when she turns from him and the peace that would result from living in harmony with God are all here. It also covers messianic and future prophetic themes. This fascinating period of Bible History is full of drama, wisdom and insight. John L. Mackay helps unpack the doctrine and applies it practically.

Revelation
The Compassion and the Protection of Christ
Paul Gardner
"This is a brilliant commentary that deserves a wide readership. It is lucid, sane, helpful and well-applied. Revelation is a book of enormous encouragement to Christians and it needs deliverance from the way it has been misused by many. Paul's are a safe pair of hands to guide you through. I warmly and highly recommend this commentary" Wallace Benn, Bishop of Lewes
