

Dear Retreater,

We are very excited to see your name on the roster for the Jr. High Retreat on the December 6-8 weekend held at Camp Cho-Yeh. We are confident that God will do wonderful things in your life this weekend and we thank you for trusting us, trusting your parents, if they are the ones who are encouraging you to go, and trusting God who loves us all infinitely! See you soon!

Dear Parents,

Please drop off your youth on Friday, December 6 between 5:30 - 6:00 PM at Prince of Peace at the Youth Center located in the back Northeast corner of the campus. We will not be eating dinner Friday night but will have snacks later in the evening.

The bus will return to Prince of Peace on Sunday, December 8 at approximately 12:00pm at the Youth Center. Breakfast at 8am will have been their last meal on Sunday. We will NOT have attended Mass for Sunday during the retreat so we encourage attendance at the Sunday 5pm Mass or the 12:30pm Mass if we arrive in time although traffic can be unpredictable.

Please see the emergency contact numbers below. We will be using a Google Voice number that will ring on all of the adult's phones that are on the retreat so you should have a relatively easy time getting a hold of someone in case of an emergency. You can also send texts to that number if you just need to ask a question or send other info. Please help us in offering a TRUE retreat from everyday life by having them leave at home personal electronic devices including cell phones. They will not be allowed to have them and we will take them until Sunday if we discover them.

If you have an outstanding balance, please pay the balance on or before Friday, December 6 either online on our website or when you drop off your child. If you have a question regarding your balance please don't hesitate to email me.

During the weekend, your child will have opportunities to share in small groups, hear testimonies from other teens, and pray through different forms of meditation. Retreaters will sleep in gender specific bunk houses that will be monitored around the clock. There are beds and showers in the cabins but no linens are provided so your child will need to bring a sleeping bag, pillow, towel, toiletries, flashlight, rosary and good closed toed shoes! In addition please also bring the Assumption of Risk Form as outlined below. While there are many instances of quiet and even silence, we understand that these youth have a lot of energy and therefore, we offer many active games, free time, big meals, etc. It will be a good mix of fun, community and chance for true conversion. There is also a Camp Store available during our free time if the kids want to get some snacks or other Camp Cho-Yeh merchandise. You can send some cash for your child to spend if you would like.

Please print and fill out the Camp Cho-Yeh Assumption of Risk Form to turn in when you drop off your child on Friday. This will speed up the drop off process for us.

Please read the Special Dietary Considerations if it is applicable to your child.

We are looking forward to meeting or reconnecting with your child and know that He who begins a good work in us will bring it to completion! If you have further questions, please contact me at dregitz@pophouston.org

I have created a Group Message through “Remind” so we can share any important information including updates during the retreat as well as time of arrival on Sunday. You can join by either using the app (<https://www.remind.com/join/popjhr2019>) or by texting the code @popjhr2019 to the number 81010
