WHAT TEACHERS ARE SAYING:

Super cute worksheets for both learning new concepts and reviewing! I used it for all levels of my piano studio! They loved it!

-Christine W.

Great activity for post-concert classes!
Allowed students to stay engaged with a short, almost-Christmas-break activity while still exploring focused listening.

-Megan R.

The “Name That Tune” worksheets were an activity in the final online piano lesson before Christmas break: They were good ear training & note naming practice, & the students enjoyed them. The other coloring worksheets will be great piano lesson “homework” assignments or group class “welcome activities” (in-person). I’m thankful for the variety—there’s something for most of the students in my studio.”
