ZOMBIE COMPOSING

- Students will brainstorm, create rhythms, apply musical contour, and more.
- Composing can be both educational and fun!

This fun and engaging zombie composing activity was inspired by one of my favorite holidays: Halloween! Step by step instructions lead students to compose their very own song over a period of days or weeks depending on your teaching schedule. To make this music composition activity even more engaging and memorable for your students, have them perform their compositions for each other during your class Halloween party, or any time of year!
