

Sneezy the Snowman

Glue the story events into the correct order.

1

Sneezy drank a cup of hot cocoa to warm up.

2

A little girl gave Sneezy her hat to wear.

Sneezy stood in front of a tree.

Sneezy the Snowman

Name: _____

- Write the vocabulary word to complete each sentence.
- Color the snowballs next to the word in the word bank.
- Circle each word in the puzzle.
- Color the second snowflake next to the word in the word bank.

- Sneezy was _____ from the cold.
- Sneezy sneezed a _____.
- The cold winter wind _____ and blew.
- The children _____ Sneezy and made him brand new.
- Sneezy _____ after drinking something hot.

Word Bank

melted giggled shivering rebuilt snowflakes

G N I R E V I N S
 I A D O S C T Y
 G C A M W E R L
 A E N E I B O I
 N S C L R K T U
 T M E T L N T B
 I I H E E K E E
 C S P H E P

Sneezy the Snowman

Name: _____

Match the cause and effect pairs.

Sneezy drank hot cocoa.

Sneezy sat in a hot tub.

Sneezy was still cold and sneezing.

Sneezy was too hot.

Sneezy stood in front of a tree.

Sneezy ate an ice cream cone.

Sneezy melted in hot water.

Sneezy melted into a puddle.

Sneezy the Snowman

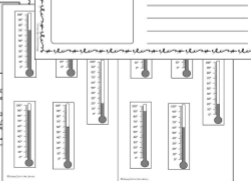

What would you do if you had a snowman and he melted? Draw/write about it below.

Sneezy the Snowman

If the temperature is above 32° snow will melt into water.
Directions: Cut out the thermometers. Sort them from coldest to hottest.

--	--	--	--

Circle the correct answer.

- If the temperature is 20° what type of clothing should you wear?
- If the temperature is 80° what activity are you likely to be doing?

Snowzilla

Cut

Glue the story events into the correct order.

1

Many people wanted Snowzilla to come down.

2

Cami Lou and her family built a huge snowman.

3

People traveled from all over to see Snowzilla.

Snowzilla

wear on a tree?

high when Turkey reindeer?

on reindeer?

es

men present?

Name: _____

Snowzilla

Match the cause-and-effect pairs. Read the cause on the top snow globe. Draw a line to the effect on the bottom snow globe.

The weather turned warmer.

The neighbors did not like Snowzilla.

The snowballs were large and heavy.

It snowed for weeks and weeks.

They asked a judge to take Snowzilla

There was enough snow to build a house.

Snow melted

Name: _____

Snowzilla

Read each sentence. Decide which vocabulary word belongs in the sentence. Color the snowflake in front of the correct word.

_____ up before you go out to play in the snow.

gather

_____ the star up to the top of the Christmas tree.

hoist

_____ through the trash looking for his next meal.

scavenged

_____ a pulley used a _____ to lift the heavy rock into the air.

pulley

_____ stood on _____ so he could clean the windows safely.

table

Name: _____

Snowzilla

In the book, many townspeople did not like Snowzilla and wanted him taken down. If you lived in the town, would you want Snowzilla to stay? Or would you want him to come down? Write about your opinion below.

The Three Snow Bears

 Cut  Glue the story events into the correct order.

1

 Aloo-ki tries on the snow bears' boots.

2

 Aloo-ki's sled dogs floated away.

3

 Aloo-ki slips from the snow bears' soup bowls.

4

 Aloo-ki leaves when the bears' come home.

The girl breaks a chair.

Setting is the forest

The girl loses her dogs

Polar bears

The girl eats from a bowl

The girl breaks a chair.

Setting is the forest

The girl loses her dogs

Polar bears

The girl eats from a bowl

The girl eats from a bowl

Name: _____

The Three Snow Bears

Color the true statements blue. Color the false statements green.

Aloo-ki has golden hair.

Aloo-ki lost her sled dogs.

Aloo-ki went to sleep with her boots on.

Aloo-ki runs between Papa Bear's legs.

Aloo-ki does not like soup.

Aloo-ki waved to the bears as she left.

Aloo-ki is happy to see the snow bears.

Aloo-ki goes home without her sled dogs.

Name: _____

The Three Snow Bears

Directions: Compare and contrast The Three Snow Bears with Goldilocks and the Three Bears. Cut out the sentence cards. Decide which category they belong in. Glue.

The Three Snow Bears

Goldilocks and the Three Bears

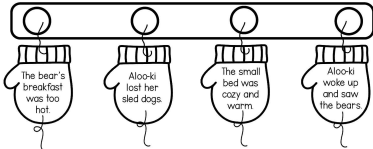

Both stories

Name: _____

The Three Snow Bears

Directions: Match the cause-and-effect pairs. Cut out the mittens on the next page. Glue the mittens underneath the matching effect.

© Thomas Nelson Inc.

On the last page of the book, the bears are waving and smiling at Aloo-ki. Why do you think this is? Write about it below.

Snowmen at Work

 Cut  Glue the story events into the correct order.

1
2
3
4
5

 A snowman mechanic fixes a sled.

 A snowman dentist fixes a snowman's smile.

 The snowman baker makes frozen treats.

 The snowmen librarian reads to snow children.

 A boy wonders if a snowman shoveled his sidewalk.

Name: _____

Snowmen at Work

Match the object to the correct community helper.

©Staying Cool in the Library

Name: _____

True or False Statements

Color the true statements yellow. Color the false statements.

 1 The dentist drills coal to fix a snowman's smile.

 4

 2 The grocer stocks his shelves with oatmeal.

 5

 3 The pet store has snow pups and goldfish.

 6 The snowmen factory workers are making trains.

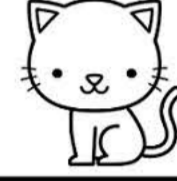

Name: _____

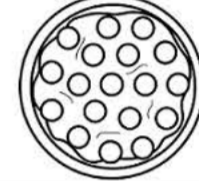

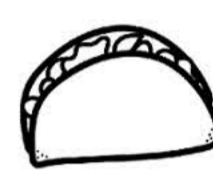

Snowmen at Work

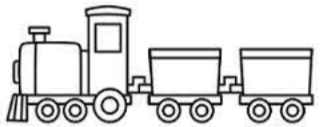

Circle the correct answer.

What does the snow teacher teach the children how to count?

What does the snow magician pull out of his hat?

What does the snowman firefighter get down from a tree?

What food is delivered to the birthday party?

What are the snowmen making in the factory?

Name: _____

Snowmen at Work

If I had a snowman, their job would be... Write/draw below.

