

weekly paragraph editing

2nd Grade Grammar Editing Practice Set

40 Engaging Paragraphs

ELA Standards-Aligned

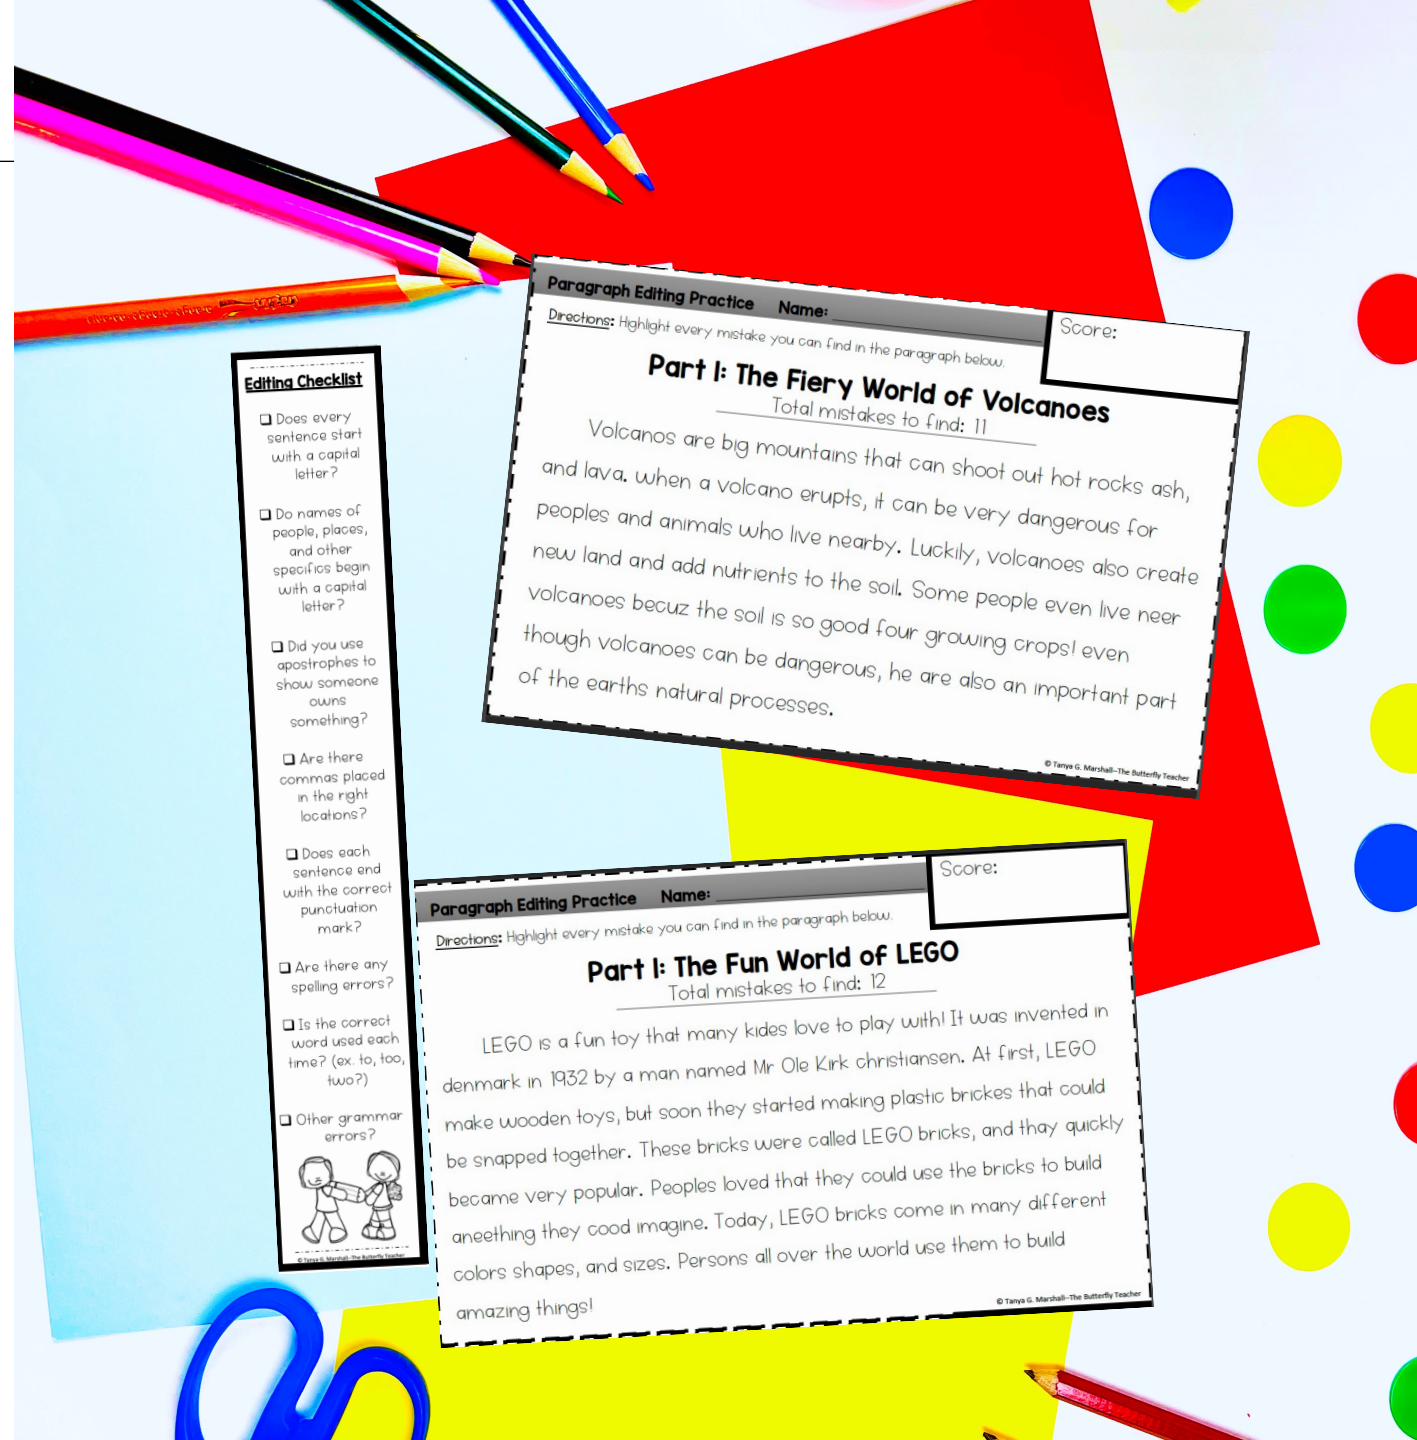

Spiraled Grammar

Teaches Proofreading
with Nonfiction Texts

How many mistakes can your students find?

Use these for:

- ✓ Intervention Work
- ✓ Spiraled Grammar
- ✓ Tutoring Practice
- ✓ ELA Test Prep Review
- ✓ Morning / Bell Ringer Activity
- ✓ Grammar Exit Tickets

Editing Checklist

- Does every sentence start with a capital letter?
- Do names of people, places, and other specifics begin with a capital letter?
- Did you use apostrophes to show someone owns something?
- Are there commas placed in the right locations?
- Does each sentence end with the correct punctuation mark?
- Are there any spelling errors?
- Is the correct word used each time? (ex. to, too, two?)
- Other grammar errors?

Paragraph Editing Practice Name: _____

Score: _____

Directions: Highlight every mistake you can find in the paragraph below.

Part I: The Fiery World of Volcanoes

Total mistakes to find: 11

Volcanos are big mountains that can shoot out hot rocks ash, and lava. when a volcano erupts, it can be very dangerous for peoples and animals who live nearby. Luckily, volcanoes also create new land and add nutrients to the soil. Some people even live near volcanoes becuz the soil is so good four growing crops! even though volcanoes can be dangerous, he are also an important part of the earths natural processes.

© Tanya G. Marshall--The Butterfly Teacher

Paragraph Editing Practice Name: _____

Score: _____

Directions: Highlight every mistake you can find in the paragraph below.

Part I: The Fun World of LEGO

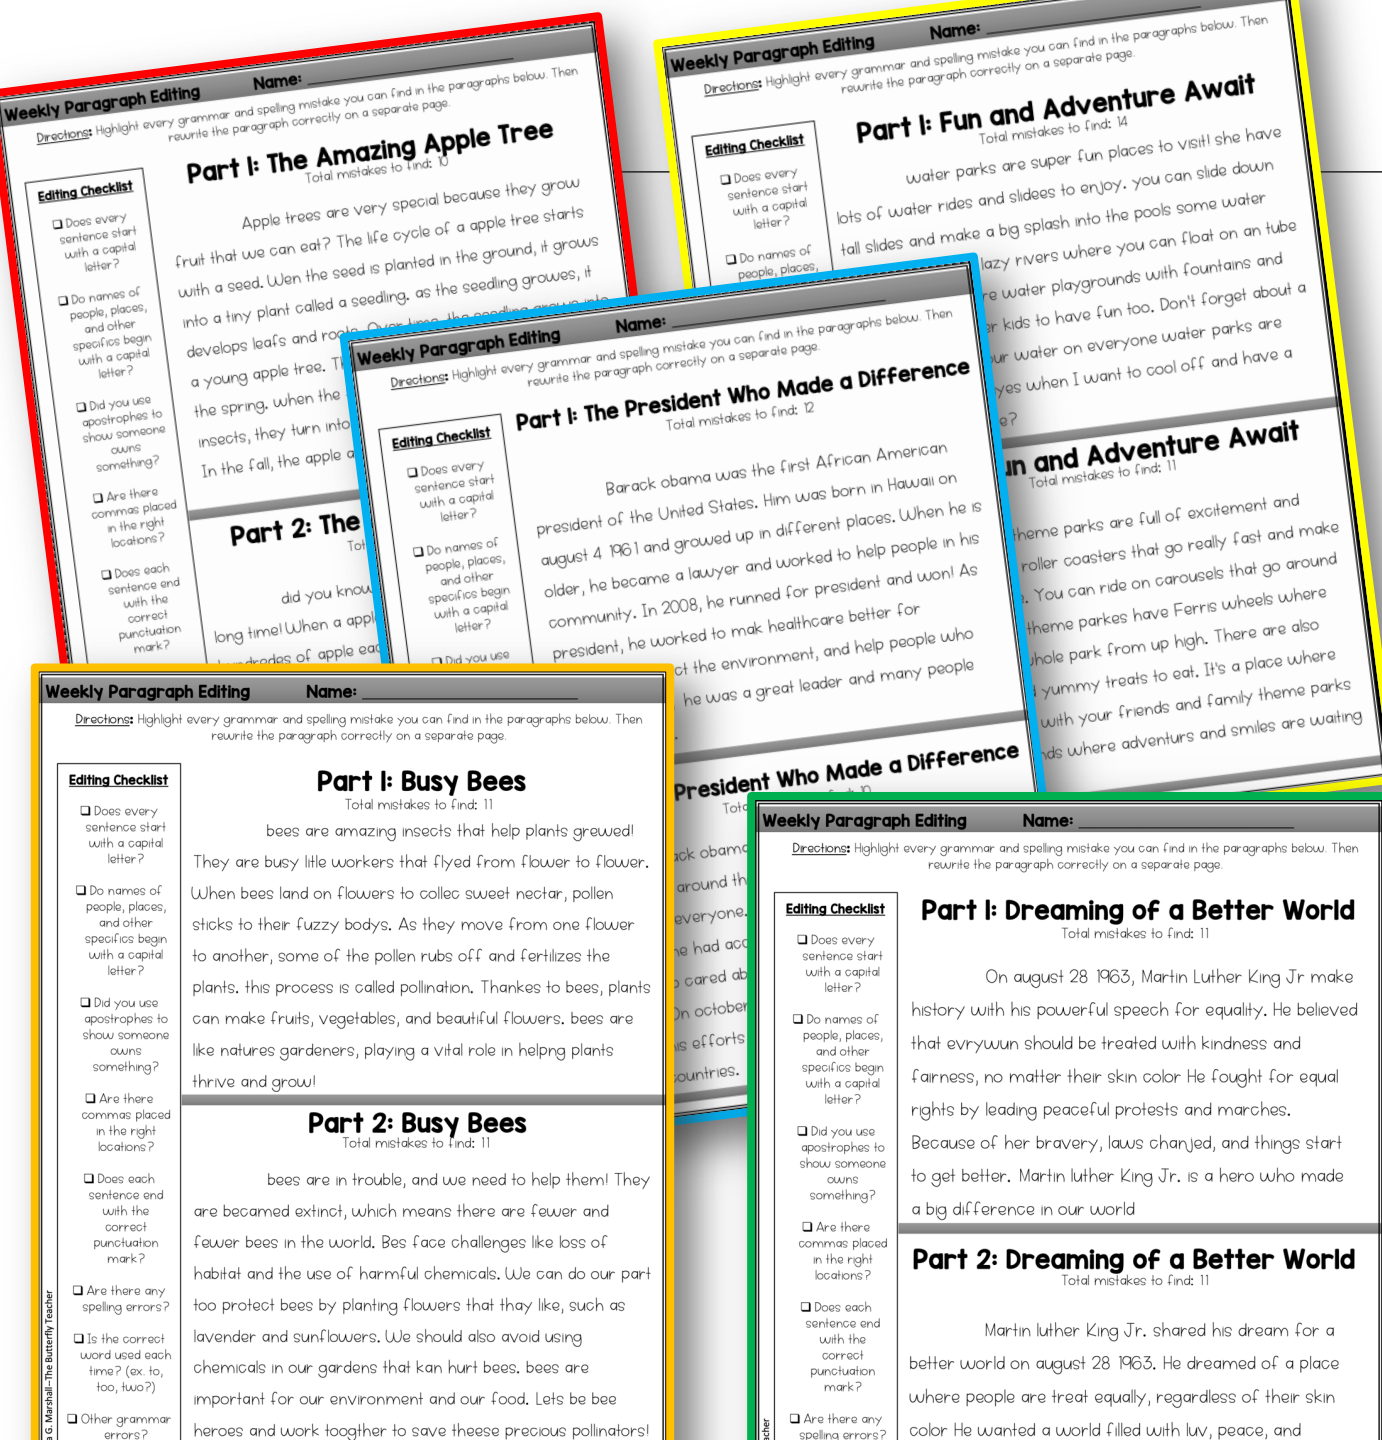

Total mistakes to find: 12

LEGO is a fun toy that many kides love to play with! It was invented in denmark in 1932 by a man named Mr Ole Kirk christiansen. At first, LEGO make wooden toys, but soon they started making plastic brickes that could be snapped together. These bricks were called LEGO bricks, and thay quickly became very popular. Peoples loved that they could use the bricks to build aneething they cood imagine. Today, LEGO bricks come in many different colors shapes, and sizes. Persons all over the world use them to build amazing things!

© Tanya G. Marshall--The Butterfly Teacher

you also get:

- ✓ Lesson Plan Notes
- ✓ Writing Templates
- ✓ Editing Checklist for Students
- ✓ Full Sheet + Exit Slip (half sheet) Versions
- ✓ Answer Keys
- ✓ Scope & Sequence Chart

Layout details that help your students succeed with editing!

Each proofreading paragraph has:

Weekly Paragraph Editing Name: _____

Directions: Highlight every grammar and spelling mistake you can find in the paragraphs below. Then rewrite the paragraph correctly on a separate page.

21: I Know Why the Caged Bird Sings
Total mistakes to find: 12

Editing Checklist

- Does every sentence start with a capital letter?
- Do names of people, places, and other specifics begin with a capital letter?
- Did you use apostrophes to show someone owns something?
- Are there commas placed in the right locations?
- Does each sentence end with the correct punctuation mark?
- Are there any spelling errors?
- Is the correct word use each time? (ex. to, too, two?)
- Other grammar errors?

Part I: A Crayon Box Adventure
Total mistakes to find: 12

do you love coloring! Well, let me tell you about an fantastic invention called crayons! A long time ago, persons used colored chalk or charcoal to make drawings. in 1903, a clever person named Mr Edwin binney invented the first crayones. Persons loved these new crayons because they were easy to hold and made bright and beutifull colors. Since then, crayons have become a favorite tool for artists students, and anyone who lovees to express their creativity with colors!

Part 2: A Crayon Box Adventure
Total mistakes to find: 10

Imagine an world without crayons. It would be so dull and colorless. But thanks to the invention of crayons, we can make our drawings come alive with vibrant shades. Crayons come in many colors, like red blue yellow green, and more. They even have fun nams like "Sunny Yellow" and "Midnight Blue." When you open a box of crayons, you'll find an rainbow waiting four you! So, let your imagination run wild with the wonderful world of crayons, and let yor creativity shine whith every stroke of color!

Editing Checklist

- Does every sentence start with a capital letter?

Set II

Letting students know how many mistakes to find

An editing checklist to guide students

Part one & two of each topic

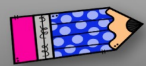

Four Different Writing Templates

Paragraph Title: _____
Name: _____

© Tanya G. Marshall--The Butterfly Teacher

Easy to assign Google Slides version included!

Change the size of the yellow boxes to cover each grammar or spelling mistake.

Paragraph Editing Practice

Directions: Highlight every mistake you can find in the paragraph below.

Part 2: The Waddling Wonders

Total mistakes to find: 10

did you no that penguins have some special adaptations that help them survive in the cold? For example, penguins have a layer of fat called blubber that keep's them warm. They also have feathers that trap air and provide insulation. When it gets reely cold, penguins huddle together in big groups to kept warm. Penguins also hav special eyes that work well underwater penguins are truly amazing birds that have adapted to lived in some of the harshest environments on earth.

© Tanya G. Marshall--The Butterfly Teacher

©Tanya G. Marshall
The Butterfly Teacher