DIGITAL CHOICE BOARD

Due to copyright law, I can not include a read-aloud video of the book. You will have to record yourself reading the book or do a live stream of the read-aloud for students to watch. You will insert the link to the video on the first slide. If you are able to read the book to your students, then you can delete the first slide completely.

- Each choice board comes with six different activities.
- The activities are a mix of google slides activity and an online activity. There are also a couple video links.
- These are digital activities. Students will need access to an internet enabled device.
- Activities include vocabulary, recalling events, book themed word games, matching games and memory games.
- These are not editable activities.
- Comes with 5 printable pages - very similar to the digital version
