EXCEPTIONAL CLARE VALLEY CABERNET SAUVIGNON

The 1960 range (1960 being the year that Kemenys commenced its wine merchant business) is a collaboration between Kemenys and leading wineries. The concept is to create a special, unique wine for Kemenys customers that over-delivers at the price. We are delighted to join with Clare Valley pioneering winery Knappstein to release the 1960 Knappstein 'The Pioneer' Cabernet Sauvignon 2020. The fruit comes from the acclaimed Enterprise Vineyard, which was planted in 1969 and has been producing exceptional grapes for Knappstein ever since. A single-vineyard cabernet sauvignon such as this would typically sell for far more than our price of $19.60 a bottle. The mission was to create Australia's best cabernet sauvignon under $20 - and we believe that Knappstein has nailed the brief.

The Ultimate Bargain Cabernet

1960 Knappstein The Pioneer Cabernet Sauvignon 2020

Region: Clare Valley Rating: 95/100 🍷👍

Knappstein has a proud pioneering heritage, with Fanny Filgate establishing the Enterprise Building in 1878, which has been the home of Knappstein Wines since its inception in 1974. The fruit comes from the acclaimed Enterprise Vineyard, which was planted in 1969 and has been producing exceptional grapes for Knappstein ever since. This culminated in 2004 with Knappstein's Cabernet Sauvignon winning the trophies for World's Best cabernet sauvignon and Best Australian Red Wine at the London International Wine & Spirits Competition, the first Clare Valley cabernet sauvignon to win these coveted trophies. Today, Knappstein Wines is creating this stunning cabernet sauvignon exclusively for Kemenys' customers, with these two iconic brands joining together in 2023 for the first time. The nose and the palate are perfectly aligned in this classical, savoury and structural cabernet sauvignon. Only 250 dozen produced.

Vale Emma Kemeny

Emma Kemeny was a force of nature. Born into a humble Hungarian family in 1933, her life was forever marked by the horrors of World War II. Yet, Emma emerged from the depths of despair with an unwavering spirit. Emma's remarkable journey, from surviving the Holocaust to becoming the heart and soul of Kemenys, a thriving family business in Sydney.

Emma's childhood was steeped in love but shadowed by looming darkness. The rise of Nazi power threatened the fragile security of her family. In 1944, her world shattered. Her father, Robert, was taken away to a forced labour camp, never to return. Emma and her mother, Rose, were confined to a crowded ghetto, living in constant fear. One harrowing day, an armed officer arrived, threatening to arrest them. Fortunately, a twist of fate intervened. Rose's sister, Esther, along with her non-Jewish husband John, orchestrated a daring rescue, hiding Emma and Rose in their attic along with other Jewish families. For nearly a year, they endured a precarious existence, venturing out only under the cloak of night until the war's end.

With liberation came the arduous task of rebuilding. Emma returned to her studies while nurturing her talent for music, the piano accordion becoming a source of solace. It was also through music that she reconnected with Leslie, her childhood friend, who would become the love of her life. They married in 1952, their future clouded by the oppressive communist regime in Hungary. Emma's yearning for freedom intensified, leading to a daring escape in 1956. With a single suitcase and Gabor, their young son, Emma, Rose and some other family members embarked on a perilous journey on foot, guided by people smugglers. Facing hunger, exhaustion, and the constant threat of capture, they finally reached the Austrian border.

Austria served as a temporary haven before they set their sights on a new life far away. Research led them to Australia, a land with "more sheep than people," as Emma reasoned, ensuring they wouldn't go hungry. Aboard the ship, Fairsea, Emma clutched her prized possession – a fur coat made by Leslie – a symbol of both hardship and hope. Their initial years in Sydney were marked by struggle. Leslie's furrier skills weren't in demand, forcing him to take up a bread vendor job. Emma, ever resourceful, found work at a milk bar, gradually progressing from washing dishes to waitressing, honing her customer service skills. Their relentless work ethic and shared dream of owning a business fuelled their determination.

Eighteen months later, opportunity knocked. They took over a small Paddington deli, with Rose managing the shop. Leslie's keen eye for potential led him to a promising location on Bondi Road. In 1960, they purchased the property, a combination of a grocery store and a fish shop. Despite financial constraints, the bank, impressed by their drive, granted them a loan. The family poured their hearts into the business, working tirelessly. Four years later, their family grew with the arrival of Andrew. Emma, a natural leader, instilled her work ethic and passion for customer service in her children. She thrived on interacting with customers, especially young children. The store became an extension of their family, a place of warmth and community.

As the business flourished, so did the Kemeny family. Gabor joined after completing his university education, determined to make Kemenys the number one liquor store in Australia. Andrew, following his passion for liquor, left university to work alongside his parents. Emma's guidance and Leslie's mentorship proved invaluable. Sadly, Leslie passed away in 1986. Devastated, yet resolute, Emma found strength in her family. With Andrew and Gabor at the helm, Kemenys achieved its goal of becoming Australia's number one liquor store by 1990.

Emma's life transcended the walls of Kemenys. She cherished her family, finding immense joy in her grandchildren and great-grandchildren. Although Emma's physical presence is no longer with us, we will continue to be inspired by her courage, perseverance and dignity.

Gris v Grigio

Pinot Gris (French) and Pinot Grigio (Italian) are two stylistically different interpretations of the same grape variety. Pinot Gris tends to be fuller-bodied and richer with flavours of ripe fruits, honey, and spices. It is often made in a more complex, expressive style, with a slightly higher alcohol content.

On the other hand, Pinot Grigio is typically lighter and crisper, with more citrus and mineral notes. It is usually made in a fresher, simpler style, with a lower alcohol content and vibrant acidity. Pinot Grigio is often perceived as a more easy-drinking and straightforward wine, while Pinot Gris is favoured for its depth and complexity.

Cantina di Gambellara Monopolo Pinot Grigio 2022

Region: Veneto Rating: 93/100 🍷👍

Founded in 1947, the Cantina di Gambellara cooperative today has nearly 300 members. This Pinot Grigio comes from the calcareous, volcanic hills in the small Gambellara commune east of Soave. Focused and intense with a super-fragrant character, white peach, white flowers, wax and honey waft from the glass. Classy.

Trophy, Best Pinot Grigio, Orange Wine Show 2023

Angullong Pinot Grigio 2023

Region: Orange Rating: 94/100 🍷👍👍

Pinot grigio is well suited to the Orange region and this was the winner of the trophy for best Pinot Grigio/Gris at the Orange Wine Show 2023. The colour is a pale straw lemon. Lifted varietal floral aromas of fresh cut hay, citrus and musk. Gorgeous cool climate varietal flavours of pear, honey and citrus with linear acidity and lovely balance. So bright, fresh and pure. Great match with seafood.

"Certainly good value", Ken Gargett

Mezzacorona Pinot Grigio 2022

Region: Trentino-Alto Adige Rating: 92/100 🍷👍

A fine Pinot Grigio from the Trentino Alto Adige region in northern Italy and one which is certainly good value. Always nice to see a European wine under screwcap - hopefully this is just the start as it helps ensure maximum freshness and vibrancy for the wine. A pleasing pale yellow hue. The nose is dominated by crisp pears with hints of nuts, minerals and garden herbs. The palate is rounded in shape and the wine offers a soft and pleasing texture. A fine line of acidity helps draw focus to the lingering finish. Definitely worth a look but it should be seen as a drink now style. Drink: 2024. Price: $22. Rating: 90/100.

In true Alsatian style

Joseph Cattin Pinot Gris 2022

Region: Alsace Rating: 93/100 🍷

In true Alsatian style, this succulent, off-dry gris has an aroma of honey suckle, orange blossom and green apples. This translates beautifully to the palate with a nicely textured mouthfeel offering more stone fruits and funky spice. Delicious as an aperitif it also pairs well with dishes with pronounced flavours such as game, prawns and, of course, foie-gras. In Alsace, it is traditionally enjoyed with Baeckeoffe (a delicious stew composed of meat, potatoes, and carrots).

Hidden Label Margaret River Pinot Gris 2023 (KHL 5163)

Region: Margaret River Rating: 95/100 🍷👍

Produced by one of Margaret River's great pioneering families. We can't give to much away, but the winemaker is a star of the region and was originally from France. The nose is classic pinot gris, with lifted citrus, pear and honeydew melon. The palate is full of fresh tropical flavours, including mango, guava and starfruit, with a whisper of preserved lemon. Refreshing acidity and a cool stoney texture top off a compelling white wine. Great with grilled chicken and antipasto. Awarded a gold medal at the prestigious Concours International de Lyon - the French should know.

Kilikanoon Skilly Valley Pinot Gris 2023

Region: Clare Valley Rating: 94/100 🍷👍

Wine critic Jeni Port (Winepilot.com) recently said "can we see more Clare Valley Pinot Gris, please! The region's higher, cooler sites are perfect for the Alsatian style white". Kilikanoon utilises the higher altitude sites in the sub-appellation of Penwortham. Pale straw with a natural slight blush from the grape skin. Bright floral jasmine and green apple skin aromas are underpinned by Nashi pear notes. Fresh and lively with a rounded texture and fine acid backbone. Flavours of fresh pear seamlessly combined with ripe lime pith. The fruit concentration appears sweet and full; driving the palate which lingers with a clean and balanced finish. This is a gris of some class.

NEW SOUTH WALES

New South Wales is blessed with a multitude of excellent wine regions, all displaying the captivating characteristics of their unique terroir. Here are some wines from a selection of those regions.

Orange is a cool climate wine region located in the Central Tablelands of New South Wales. Known for its high-altitude vineyards, Orange produces elegant and refined wines, particularly chardonnay and pinot noir. The region has a reputation for producing premium cool-climate wines, mostly displaying a distinct mineral edge.

Tumbarumba is situated in the foothills of the Snowy Mountains and is renowned for its sparkling wines and cool climate varieties such as chardonnay and pinot noir. The region's unique combination of elevation and cool climate produces wines with intense fruit flavours and crisp acidity.

Hilltops is located northwest of Sydney and produces high-quality, full-bodied red wines, particularly shiraz and cabernet sauvignon. The region's warm climate and cool nights create ideal conditions for producing bold and robust wines with rich, ripe fruit flavours.

Hunter Valley, Australia's oldest wine region, is located just north of Sydney. Its semillon, chardonnay and shiraz are some of Australia's greatest cellaring wines. The Hunter Valley, with its warm climate and sandy soils produces wines that are vibrant, textural and full of flavour.

SHIRAZ WITH AGE

Ageing appropriately structured shiraz wines can impart additional complexities and nuances to the flavours and aromas of the wine as it matures. This can result in a smoother, more integrated wine with enhanced characteristics such as secondary notes of dried fruits, earthiness, and spices. Additionally, ageing can soften harsh tannins, resulting in a more balanced and elegant drink. Overall, ageing shiraz can lead to a more sophisticated and enjoyable drinking experience.

WHY NOT TRY OUR HIDDEN LABELS

All our Hidden Labels are meticulously sourced from some of the finest Australian and international producers.

Shiraz, in particular, is well represented. They come from all the right shiraz-friendly regions and more than a few are gold-medal and trophy winners under their makers' label.

The biggest plus with Hidden Label is that you're receiving a sensational wine for way less than you'd pay if it wore the maker's label.

That's a big plus. Try these.

Hidden Label Hunter Valley Shiraz 2021 (KHL 7864)

Region: Hunter Valley Rating: 94/100

Grown on some of the top blocks at probably the Hunter Valley's most famous producer, which have an average vine age of 40 years and are mostly dry grown. Made to the same high standards as their flagship shiraz (which is a regional icon). Vibrant purple colour, with a lifted nose showing bright red fruits and confectionery spice. The palate is medium bodied with good depth of flavour yet still lively and fresh. Soft, savoury tannins and a crunchy acidity adds to the wines complexity. A wonderful example of a modern, medium bodied Hunter Valley Shiraz from an outstanding vintage. Enjoy.

Superlative wine

Hidden Label Reserve Heathcote Shiraz 2019 (KHL 5039)

Region: Heathcote Rating: 95/100

Planted in 1994, the vineyard is situated on the east facing slopes of Mount Carmel, about 25km north of the town of Heathcote. It is blessed with ancient Cambrian soils. The oldest and best blocks were used for this reserve shiraz. Dark, inky purple with a vibrant hue. The nose shows rich dark fruits with the full array of pepper, charcuterie, and a subtle lift of French Oak. The palate has a richness and softness with dark fruit and chocolate and some spice. The tannin from the stalk and oak working well together gives the wine a silky texture and finish. Superlative wine. Gold medal winner at the Sydney Royal Wine Show was no surprise.

MALBEC

Malbec wines originated in France, specifically in the Bordeaux region where it was used as a blending grape in blends. However, it found its true potential in Argentina, where it thrives in the high-altitude vineyards of Mendoza. Malbec wines from Argentina are known for their rich, dark fruit flavours and velvety texture. Australian malbec is also gaining recognition for its bold and fruity characteristics, with regions like South Australia, Western Australia and Victoria producing excellent examples. Australian malbecs often boast flavours of plum, blackberry, and spice, making them an exciting red wine option.

Margaret River's New Star

Hidden Label Margaret River Malbec 2023 (KHL 5164)

Region: Margaret River Rating: 95/100

Grown on a single vineyard of one of Margaret River's founding families. Earthy notes with fruits of the forest ripeness. Blackberry, mulberry and dark plum, with milk chocolate oak, with firm but integrated tannins, along with earthy, savoury notes and a long finish. What we love about this is its approachability. Whilst having plenty of body it is perfumed and elegant. It is wines like this that have made Malbec Margaret River's new star varietal.

The national drink of Argentina

Argento Classic Malbec 2022

Region: Mendoza Rating: 93/100 🍷

Argento's entry-level malbec proves why so many people across the world have come to embrace the Argentinian approach to this medium-bodied wine. In the glass, it's an alluringly deep shade of violet, with an equally enticing bouquet of prunes, blackcurrants and bramble. The fruit flavours are ripe and sharply defined, made even more so by whispers of vanilla and sweet baking spices like cardamom. There's a jammy element to it, for sure, but it never feels cloying thanks to its moderate weight, velvety tannins and the lingering hit of dark chocolate that await at the finish line.

Achaval-Ferrer Bella Vista Malbec 2014

Region: Mendoza Rating: 98/100 🍷

Benchmark Argentinian producer Achaval-Ferrer was the first winery in Argentina to achieve a 100 point score from The Wine Advocate. Its Italian winemaker, Roberto Cipresso, is one of the world's most renowned winemakers. Bella Vista is the seven hectare 'home block' adjacent to the winery at 980 metres above sea level. With Finca Bella Vista the goal is to allow the vineyard to express its "terroir" which it does vintage after vintage. Tim Atkin MW says of the 2014 "blocks 4 and 5 are located next to the winery and are both over 110 years old. This delicious Malbec sees 100% new oak (in 165 litre barrels) and is a savoury, spicy, beautifully judged triumph. Plush, broad, yet still restrained, it has a lovely core of black fruit sweetness and velvety tannins". Truly outstanding.

It has been a while since we offered a Marlborough Sauvignon Blanc in our Hidden Label range.

Why? Because we are very picky, and it's taken this long to find a worthy contender.

Our new Hidden Label Marlborough Sauvignon Blanc 2023 (KHL 2565) has now arrived and we reckon it's an absolute standout.

This savvy really impressed. It's a vivacious and brilliantly structured wine which displays the variety's classic, zesty lime, passionfruit and gooseberry flavours perfectly complementing subtle fresh grassy notes. Beautifully balanced and begging to be served up chilled alongside a big plate of freshly shucked oysters.

For savvy lovers, our price of only $11 a bottle is a bargain (50% off the RRP of $22).

Hidden Label Marlborough Sauvignon Blanc 2023 (KHL 2565)

Region: Marlborough Rating: 94/100

This renowned Marlborough producer selects grapes from their top vineyards in the Waihopai and Wairau valleys, resulting in classic Marlborough aromas of citrus, tropical fruit and fresh herbs. The crisp, juicy palate features lime, green apple, nectarine and passionfruit with subtle fresh grassy undertones and mouth-watering acidity. Judicious lees contact and a small barrel-fermented portion has given tantalising texture and spice. A standout Marlborough sauvignon blanc which is a perfect match for grilled seafood and freshly shucked oysters.

Tomich Icon 1777 Pinot Noir 2022

Region: Adelaide Hills Rating: 96/100 🍷👍

Only made in the best of vintages this is a celebration of the 777 clone, which works well for the high toned perfume of the Hills. Redskins, raspberries, cranberries and a touch of hibiscus. There is a true freshness to the fruit, you can almost feel the taut skin and cascade of grape juice as it's being pressed. The palate has a distinct red cherry, almost like a great quality cocktail cherry that's been steeping in Chambord. The dusty tannins are quite significant - this will cellar beautifully but only if you can restrain yourself from opening it too soon. JUNIPER

MARGARET RIVER

Juniper Estate is a renowned winery located in Western Australia's Margaret River region, known for producing premium, handcrafted wines of exceptional quality. Since its establishment in 1973, Juniper Estate has built a strong reputation for its elegant and sophisticated wines, particularly its award-winning cabernet sauvignon and chardonnay.

Winemaker Mark Messenger has been at the helm of Juniper Estate since 1998, bringing his expertise and passion for winemaking to the forefront. Mark's commitment to showcasing the unique terroir of Margaret River has been instrumental in solidifying the winery's status as a top producer in the region.

THE ART OF BLENDING

The blending of grape varieties in Australian wines offers winemakers a golden opportunity to create complex and balanced products. By combining different grape varieties, winemakers can enhance the aromas, flavours, and overall structure of the wine. This can result in wines that are more interesting and unique, appealing to a wider range of consumers. Additionally, blending can help to mitigate the effects of poor weather conditions or other challenges in the vineyard, as different grape varieties may respond differently to these factors.

Here are some of our favourite blends.

"A powerhouse shiraz", Stuart Knox

St Hallett Blackwell Shiraz 2020 (375ml)

Region: Barossa Valley Rating: 95/100 🍷

Impenetrable core to a deeply-stained ruby-red rim. Mulberry, ironstone and dark chocolate aromatics. Rich dense and weighty, a powerhouse shiraz that's loaded with dark berry fruit and layered complexity of savoury graphite and mocha notes. Tannins are powerful but wrapped in velvet, so the palate glides with great persistence to the drying finish. Many years of enjoyment will be found here and whilst not cheap it offers great value. Alcohol: 14.5%. Date tasted: Sep 2022. Drink: 2022-2037. Rating: 95/100.

Moorooduc Estate Pinot Noir 2021 (375ml)

Region: Mornington Peninsula Rating: 95/100 🍷

Now, this has come together beautifully and appears so gentle and refined. Subtle aromas of spiced cherries and autumnal leaves, sumac and woody spices. The palate is shy of medium-bodied with fine, lacy tannins, a core of sweet-ish fruit and a savoury overlay. It's compelling and totally enticing, so it's a shame this is not out now - boo hoo! In 2024 apparently, but worth following up. Closure: screwcap. Alcohol: 13.5%. Date tasted: Jan 2023. Drink: 2028. Rating: 94/100.

Mumm Cordon Rouge NV (375ml)

Region: Champagne Rating: 94/100 🍷

Mumm Cordon Rouge NV is at No.3 on the list of the world's biggest selling champagnes. Cordon Rouge has graced the scene since 1876, and the current offering displays the fresh and savoury pinot noir aromas and flavours, and cracked yeast/brioche characters we've come to expect from this house. Stylish and rich. Top value champagne. So popular in fact, that Australians are the largest drinkers of Mumm in the world outside of France.

Outstanding champagne - brilliant value

Ayala Brut Majeur NV

Region: Champagne Rating: 94/100

Founded by Edmond de Ayala in 1860 and now owned by Bollinger. Brut Majeur is representative of the Ayala house style. Typically 3 years on lees and 43% Reserve Wines. Chardonnay at 55% (30% Pinot Noir and 15% Pinot Meunier making up the balance) in this cuvee expresses all its purity and elegance. It has a vigorous bead of fine bubbles and light golden hue. Open and expressive. Delicate unveiling notes of citrus, flowers and white fruits. Balanced, combining freshness and vinosity. Precise, fruity with a long finish. Excellent aperitif champagne.

CHAMPAGNE and SPARKLING

An ideal aperitif

Henriot Brut Souverain NV

Region: Champagne Rating: 93/100

It's astounding to think that The House of Henriot has been in the same family for over 200 years. Mostly drawing from Premier Cru and Grand Cru villages. The chardonnay-dominant champagne is precise and elegant. Brut Souverain appeals with its nose of white flower and citrus fruit notes, then with a elegant, harmonious palate. An ideal aperitif. Made up of a balanced proportion of Chardonnay, the majority from the Cote des Blancs, and Pinot Noir, mostly from the Montagne de Reims. Around 8% Pinot Meunier adds a delicate fruity note. Four years on lees prior to disgorgement leads to a wonderful level of complexity and finesse. Richard Jublin (The Richard Jublin Champagne Club) notes that "the house style is distinctive. Very nice and rounded thanks to up to seven years old reserve wines. Extremely constant over the years".

Wonderfully complex aroma rises from the glass as soon as this is poured. So complex on the nose and uncompromisingly dry but well balanced on the palate. Lightly smoky but with no shortage of fine, ripe fruit in an interesting honeysuckle and lime spectrum. Clean and fresh and extremely long. This definitely deserves to be priced above regular non-vintage champagne. Not quite delicate. Not quite creamy. Just hits the right note for a superior blend. Drink: 2022-2030. Rating: 17+/20.

Champagne, often used as a synonym for all sparkling wines, is strictly a regional name that refers to sparkling wine produced in the Champagne region of France. It is rightly the benchmark for all other sparkling wines.

Prosecco is another popular sparkling wine, which originates from Italy and is made from the Glera grape variety. Prosecco covers a wide range of styles from bone dry to quite sweet. Australian producers have also started producing their own versions of Prosecco, offering a local twist on the traditional Italian sparkling wine.

Australian sparkling wine is highly regarded, with producers creating their own unique styles. Australian sparkling shiraz is a uniquely traditional Australian style, and known for its rich and bold flavors.

House of Arras is a premium Tasmanian sparkling wine producer, known for crafting exceptional sparkling wines. Established in 1995 by Ed Carr, a renowned winemaker with decades of experience, House of Arras has quickly gained a reputation for producing some of the finest sparkling wines in Australia.

The winery focuses exclusively on méthode traditionnelle sparkling wines, using traditional techniques such as hand harvesting and extended cellaring to create compelling, beautifully complex wines showing a real sense of place. House of Arras sources fruit from some of the very best vineyards in Tasmania.

HOME GROWN ROSÉ

Clearly inspired by French examples, Australian rose has become a significant part of the Australian winescape. Made from any red (and some white) variety of red grape varietals, such as shiraz, grenache, and cabernet sauvignon, Australian rose wines showcase characteristics of the many regions in which it's grown. These wines typically exhibit notes of strawberries, raspberries, citrus, and floral undertones, making them perfect for summer sipping or pairing with a variety of dishes. Whether you prefer a crisp and dry style or a slightly sweeter option, Australian rose wines offer a diverse range of options to suit everyone's palate.

CLARE RIESLING

The Clare Valley in South Australia is particularly famous for its high-quality riesling wines. With varying microclimates and soil types, the region is divided into different subregions, each producing rieslings with unique characteristics.

The dress circle Polish Hill River subregion is known for its crisp, textural wines with intense citrus and floral notes, many with long lives ahead. Watervale and Sevenhill are noted for their aromatic, elegant rieslings with hints of lime and green apple, the majority also promising great form with extended cellar time.

In short, Clare Valley rieslings are prized for their purity, minerality, and longevity, making them some of the most sought-after wines in Australia.

A classic style of Riesling never goes out of date. Mort's Block epitomizes that classic approach in its concentration of fruit and singular purity of expression. Floral and spring-like in scent: citrus blossom, lime, spicy musk, orange peel. Youthful, taut in structure with emerging white peach, ginger spice and citrus flavours. Time is on its side. Mort's Block, which is the basis for this label, boasts old vines planted in 1970 and grown on red loamy soils over limestone. That limestone plays a role. There's an almost effortless balance here with mineral-laced fineness. Watervale Riesling in a great year deserves more time in the cellar, but few will be able to resist opening a bottle right now. Drink: 2022-2035. Price: $25. Rating: 95/100.

One of Australia's finest examples of the noble variety

Petaluma Hanlin Hill Riesling 2023

Region: Clare Valley Rating: 95/100 🍷👍

Planted in 1968, the Hanlin Hill vineyard is on a west-facing slope on the eastern edge of the Clare Valley where the vines are up to 550 meters above sea level. It is a unique site that produces the highest quality rieslings characterised with intense lime flavours and a backbone of natural acidity. Citrus peel and sweet white fruits, with undertones of grapefruit and citrus blossom. Lemon zest, jasmine and cherry blossom with powerful fruit intensity and drive finishing with fine acidity and beautiful perfume. A wine to enjoy now in its youth, but as with all Petaluma rieslings, it will be worth the wait to watch it develop in bottle for many more years. One of Australia's finest examples of the noble variety.

PURE TASMANIA

Tasmania is home to several distinct wine regions, known for their cool climate and high-quality wines. The main wine regions in Tasmania include the Tamar Valley, Coal River Valley/Derwent Valley, Freycinet, and Huon Valley. The Tamar Valley, located in the north of the island, produces outstanding aromatic white wines such as riesling and pinot gris. The Coal River Valley, near Hobart, is renowned for its pinot noir and chardonnay. The Freycinet region, situated on Tasmania's east coast, is famous for its elegant pinot noir and complex sparkling wines. The Huon Valley, located in the south, produces a wide range of elegant cool climate wines, particularly chardonnay and pinot noir. Tasmania's unique terroir, with its cool climate, maritime influences, and diverse soils, produce wines of exceptional quality and complexity.

Whatever the source of your bottle of Tasmanian wine, you're sure to be impressed by its sheer quality.

Meadowbank Riesling 2023

Region: Derwent Valley Rating: 98/100 🍷🍷

Beautiful Meadowbank, on Tasmania's upper Derwent River, is primarily a grape grower with 52ha of vines - enough for only 800 dozen directed to wines contract-made by Peter Dredge. It's such a ravishing wine, as rich and deep as it is pure and fine. Redefines citrus. Alcohol: 11.5%. Closure: screwcap. Drink: 2043. Price: $40. Rating: 98/100.

Bay of Fires Pinot Gris 2023

Region: Northern Tasmania Rating: 96/100 🍷🍷

One of Australia's best pinot gris. An invigorating blend of what is clearly exceptional fruit sourced from vineyards across Tasmania (Derwent Valley, Relbia and Coal River Valley). The result is delicious. Enticing aromas of sweet pear and subtle spice are followed by a lively palate of melon and peach, baked pears and Turkish delight. With extended mouthfeel, this is a great wine to enjoy over the next 3 years. A powerful, super textural pinot gris true to the French style.

"Enticing exoticism", Tyson Stelzer

Riversdale Estate Riesling 2021

Region: Coal Valley Rating: 95/100 🍷🍷

From a single vineyard in the Coal River Valley. An enticing exoticism is lifted by all the best attributes of botrytis - orange blossom, apricot, loquat and fig, along with a subtle palate viscosity and not a hint of the bitterness that all too often sneaks in. A touch of sweetness has been played to masterful effect, leaving the final impression to a long tail of perfectly ripe yet energetic and lithe acidity. Drink it now or in a decade or more. Holm Oak the Wizard Pinot Noir 2021

Region: Northern Tasmania Rating: 97/100 🍷🍷

It's always exciting when a wine makes you stop and think. The Holm Oak the Wizard is the top of the range in the winery's portfolio of Pinot Noirs and it is easy to see why, making use of diversified clonal selection and 30% whole bunch. There's no shortage of interest on the nose, with deep and concentrated primary fruits vying for attention alongside compelling notes of decomposing leaves (or forest floor for the romantics out there), wild mushroom, damp earth, clove, churchy spice and incense, cedar and the lingering whisp of tobacco. The palate gives reason to pause. There is just so much going on here, and it's all delicious. Juicy, long and elegant ribbons of acidity keep the tension as tight as a Netfix cliff-hanger. Tannins have enough muscle to age well into a decade, and to hold the intensity of spice and fruit that is wrapped around its frame. At its core, this is a beautiful wine. It's clear on its intentions, yet it provides layers of complexity and detail while it takes you to its final destination, complete with a ferrous, savoury finish. A full orchestra of a wine. Bravo. A pinot of intensity and purity

Spikey Bridge Vineyard Pinot Noir 2018

Region: Northern Tasmania Rating: 95/100

We love discovering pinot from boutique Tasmanian producers. This is a new venture with Jeremy Dineen at the helm. Jeremy is one of Tasmania's top winemakers having spent 15 years at Josef Chromy. The Spikey Bridge Vineyard in the Tamar Valley is bounded by the Kerry Lodge Bridge (nicknamed Spikey Bridge) which is one of Australia's oldest surviving convict build bridges built in 1835 and still in use today. A small batch of hand-picked grapes from a single block on the vineyard was selected for this limited release. Dark cherry red, intense aromas of red and dark cherry fruits. The perfume flows on the palate with notes of wild raspberry with a hint of coffee. A pinot of intensity and purity with a long and persistent flow of red fruits and spice.

Dual Trophy Winner

Riversdale Estate Syrah 2017

Region: Southern Tasmania Rating: 95/100 🍷🍷

Winner of the trophy for Best Tasmanian Shiraz at both the Royal Hobart Wine Show 2019 and the Great Australian Shiraz Challenge 2019. Wine Critic Campbell Mattinson (The Wine Front) loved it saying "Riversdale Estate Syrah is a wine I'm keen to follow. It's from the Coal River Valley. Beautiful cool climate aroma and flavour here. Perfume aplenty, nothing hard or unripe, pepper and herb, twigs and nuts, and of course cherry and plum. It's svelte, stylish, spicy and refreshing. Mouthfeel is sheer and satiny. Length is very good too. If you're a cool-climate-shiraz/syrah kind of person then it drinks a treat now; otherwise it will be excellent at maturity." Region: Margaret River Rating: 94/100 🍷👍

Margaret River is famous for its signature white blend: Semillon and Sauvignon Blanc. One of the trophy results at the Royal Adelaide Wine Show 2023 caught our attention. The winner of the trophy for the Best Dry Wine Blend was the Deep Woods Ivory Semillon Sauvignon Blanc 2023 which sells for less than $15 a bottle. To prove it was no fluke, this everyday priced white also won a gold medal the Margaret River Wine Show 2023. An expressive and vibrant nose. Intense, juicy lemon pith bursts onto the palate alongside fresh green herbs. A crunchy acidity provides balance and freshness, highlighting the grassy, tropical and citrus flavours on the finish. Sourced from the Allingham vineyard located in the cooler Karridale sub region. Evocative aromas of white grapefruit, orange blossom and yellow nectarine. A luxurious texture unfurls across the palate, reminiscent of ripe stone fruit, counterbalanced by bright citrus and vibrant acidity. The elongated finish speaks to the persistence of flavour and quality of fruit at the core of this wine, and hints at the richness and complexity that will continue develop with time in bottle. Margaret River is emerging as Australia's newest premier region to champion sauvignon blanc. It is a style that we prefer over many of the Marlborough sauvignon blancs being less herbaceous. Aromas of lemon and limes generating a unique freshness with tropical notes of passionfruit and honeydew melons. Hidden Label Hunter Valley Shiraz 2021 (KHL 7864)

Region: Hunter Valley
Rating: 94/100

Grown on some of the top blocks at probably the Hunter Valley's most famous producer, which have an average vine age of 40 years and are mostly dry grown. Made to the same high standards as their flagship shiraz (which is a regional icon). Vibrant purple colour, with a lifted nose showing bright red fruits and confectionery spice. The palate is medium bodied with good depth of flavour yet still lively and fresh. Soft, savoury tannins and a crunchy acidity adds to the wines complexity. A wonderful example of a modern, medium bodied Hunter Valley Shiraz from an outstanding vintage. Enjoy.

Hidden Label Margaret River Pinot Gris 2023 (KHL 5163)

Region: Margaret River
Rating: 95/100

Produced by one of Margaret River's great pioneering families. We can't give too much away, but the winemaker is a star of the region and was originally from France. The nose is classic pinot gris, with lifted citrus, pear and honeydew melon. The palate is full of fresh tropical flavours, including mango, guava and starfruit, with a whisper of preserved lemon. Refreshing acidity and a cool stoney texture top off a compelling white wine. Great with grilled chicken and antipasto. Awarded a gold medal at the prestigious Concours International de Lyon - the French should know.

Hidden Label Clare Valley Riesling 2023 (KHL 4955)

Region: Clare Valley
Rating: 94/100

It is a wonderful thing when nature gives a region three cracking vintages on the trot and the Clare Valley has certainly been blessed. The 2023 Rieslings are proving to be just as exciting as its two predecessors. This is pale straw with a nose radiating with citrus, limes, spices and florals, all lovely stuff, full of flavour. This is approachable now but certainly has an exciting future, especially at this price with notes of orange blossoms. Slightly crunchy acidity and a long, lingering, clean finish, which maintains its intensity. Drink over the next six to ten years. Drink: 2023-2033. Price: $22. Rating: 93/100.

Hidden Label Adelaide Hills Sauvignon Blanc 2023 (KHL 2538)

Region: Adelaide Hills
Rating: 94/100

Picked over a two-week span, harvested from individual rows. No SO2 added to bins and taken to the winery cool room within an hour of harvest. Pressed using only free-run juice, then extended lees contact in tank. Classic citrus and green apple flavours. Alcohol: 11.5%. Closure: screwcap. Date tasted: Aug 2023. Drink: 2024. Price: $22. Rating: 93/100.

Angullong Shiraz 2021

Region: Orange
Rating: 90/100

Wines from Angullong are such great value. Deep and youthful dark purple / ruby red. Fresh and youthful aromas of mulberry, dark plums and forest floor with complementary oak. Generous, rounded, fleshy flavours of ripe blackberry and mulberry with complex herb, oak and lingering balanced tannins. Wine critic Gabrielle Poy says, "it offers great value and runs a little against the tide of sweet and simple reds for under $25".

Claymore Dark Side of the Moon Shiraz 2021

Region: Clare Valley
Rating: 94/100 🍷👍

One always tries to taste without any idea of the price (not always as easy as you might think). So, when I later found out the cost of this wine, I had to check it three times. This is brilliant value. Dark magenta, this is a Clare Valley Shiraz from a top vintage, which is so beautifully crafted. Black cherries, aniseed, blackberries, spices, cloves and tobacco leaf notes, this is finely balanced, seamless, exhibiting such silky tannins and with real length. The oak contribution is well managed and nearly invisible. Drink over the next eight to ten years and no excuse for not filling the cellar. This is the best version of this wine I've seen. Drink: 2033-2033. Price: $25. Rating: 94/100.

Wynns the Siding Cabernet Sauvignon 2021

Region: Coonawarra
Rating: 96/100 🍷👍

Wynns have built a huge reputation for top quality cabernet. Wynns are blessed with very large holdings of cabernet sauvignon vineyards, combined with state-of-the-art viticulture and a brilliant winemaking team led by the legendary Sue Hodder. Throw in the beautiful red soils of the Coonawarra, and it's a sure recipe for success. This wine shows all the Coonawarra cabernet hallmarks - lovely ripe blackberry fruit with that trademark leafiness and quality oak treatment. Refined and substantial, this screams Wynns. At this price, it has to be one for your wish list.

Small Victories Pinot Gris 2022

Region: Adelaide Hills
Rating: 95/100 🍷👍

The 2022 Small Victories Pinot Gris charms with an entrance firmly in the fun-loving and generous spectrum, with gorgeously bright tropical fruit notes of guava and pawpaw, white florals and a mineral-driven pear drop freshness on the nose. On the palate it's somewhat more serious; dry and savoury with a lilting texture from lees contact, vibrant acidity, and a mouth-watering finish that begs for a little spicy raw fish crudo. Claymore Joshua Tree Riesling 2023

Region: Clare Valley
Rating: 94/100 🍷👍

Clare Valley Riesling from one of the region's top producers. Classic regional aromas of bright citrus, subtle stone fruit and a whiff of sweet spring blossoms. The palate jumps with fresh, zesty lemon and lime flavours, some green apple and cool river stone minerality. Lively, cleansing acidity tucks in the wine neatly. Best drinking now through 5 years plus. This is Kemenys go-to riesling.

Angullong Chardonnay 2023

Region: Orange
Rating: 93/100 🍷👍

The Orange Region is renowned for its cool, elegant Chardonnay. The slow ripening of the grapes ensure an intensity of flavour, with finesse being the key. The Angullong Chardonnay is a modern wine with layers of flavour including stonefruit and citrus. The oak is balanced in a way that highlight these flavours without dominating. It works a treat.

Mitchell Peppertree Shiraz 2016

Region: Clare Valley
Rating: 95/100 🍷👍

The key to this wine is fantastic balance from start to finish. Quite deeply coloured, it's ripe and generous but also carries great subtlety too - dark cherry, liquorice and old oak are topped with white pepper, eucalyptus and violets plus a hint of whole bunch spice. There is definitely something Rhoney going on here too. That is followed by a dry, juicy and mid-weight palate with some Clare Valley earthy flavours tied into dark fruits and supported by long drying tannins with baking spices right on the finish. So much going on here, it is a better, great value and has plenty of aging potential. Get some. Price: $34. Drink: 2021-2032. Rating: 95/100.

Koonara Wanderlust Cabernet Sauvignon 2019

Region: Coonawarra
Rating: 94/100 🍷👍

When wine is aged in fine oak barrels, a portion of it evaporates - this is known as the 'Angel's Share'. It was on this sentiment that the Koonara angel was born. Label designs are a funny thing (and definitely in the eye of the beholder) but for what it is worth we like this label design. However, the most important thing is what is inside the bottle. Tiny berries make great wine and in 2019 they were very tiny berries. One look at the colour and it gives you an indication of the concentration of these little berries. The flavour also comes from the skin, so the smaller the berry, the more colour and flavour. Intense sweet cassis fruit nose and lovely blackcurrant juiciness on the warming palate with its fine tannins. Great value Coonawarra Cabernet Sauvignon to be had here.

Taylors Jaraman Chardonnay 2023

Region: South Australia
Rating: 94/100 🍷👍

Taylor's Jaraman range combines parcels of fruit from different regions to showcase their distinctive regional characteristics and style. A classy and sophisticated modern Chardonnay sourced from the unusual fusion of Clare Valley (88%) and Adelaide Hills (12%). The riper stone fruit influences of the Clare Valley merges seamlessly with the restrained fruit characters and a hint of minerality of the Adelaide Hills. An intensely flavoured, complex yet elegant Chardonnay with distinct citrus, white peach & nectarine characters along with a subtle flinty note.

Sidewood Estate Pinot Gris 2023

Region: Adelaide Hills
Rating: 95/100 🍷👍

Sidewood was founded in 2004 with a vision to create beautifully balanced, elegant wines with a sense of place. Since then Sidewood has one over 50 trophies and 400 gold medals for their wines. We doubt if there is a more award winning Adelaide Hills winery. The 2023 Pinot Gris just took out the trophy for Best Pinot Grigio or Pinot Gris at the National Cool Climate Wine Show 2023. It's a complex gris that sees 5 months in larger format French oak. Aromas of tangerine, lemon rind and talc lead to a balanced textural wine, displaying flavours of grapefruit and Nashi pear, accented by notes of orange blossom and long, mineral-led finish. A wine suited to seared scallops, rabbit terrine and Thai salads.

Some of the vines that donated their dry-grown grapes to this wine are more than 100 years old. It shows in the wine's complexity and backbone. Tahbilk 1927 Vines Marsanne 2015

Region: Goulburn Valley
Rating: 96/100 🍷🍷

1927 Vines was an epiphany, inspired by the beauty that comes to bottle-aged Hunter semillon. A steely, pure backbone of clean acidity is the vehicle for the grape's underrated versatility and charm. Honeysuckle, apple blossom, white peach, honeycomb and hay mingle in the glass. Six years old and still fresh, it tingles on the palate with lemon zest, grapefruit and dusty apple brightness. Texture is developing and the long, apricot nut finish is something that stays with you. Still a pup. Alcohol: 11%. Closure: screwcap. Date tasted: Oct 2021. Drink by: 2035. Price: $47. Coppabella Procella Chardonnay 2021

Region: Tumbarumba
Rating: 95/100 🍷🍷

Cool climate chardonnay from Tumbarumba, at the foothills of the Snowy Mountains in Southern NSW. The elegance and purity of Tumbarumba Chardonnay challenges people's perception of Australian Chardonnay of days gone by. This is from a famed vineyard that has been the source of some of Australia's greatest chardonnay's including Penfolds Yattarna. Bright and lifted on the nose with citrus, fig and flinty notes. The palate is long and elegant with the varietal flavours, knitting in neatly with subtle toasty French oak, adding a spicy, nutty complexity. Classic cool climate chardonnay.

DISTILLERY IN FOCUS

LARK DISTILLERY

Lark Distillery is a famous Australian whisky producer based in Hobart, Tasmania. Established in 1992 by Bill Lark, it was one of the pioneers, and inspirations, of the now burgeoning spirit-distilling scene in Tasmania and Australia in general.

Lark Distillery is known for its dedication to craftsmanship and quality, using traditional methods such as pot still distillation and aging their whisky in high-quality oak casks. The distillery offers a range of award-winning whiskies, including their flagship Lark Single Malt Whisky, as well as limited edition releases and special cask finishes.

Lark Distillery has garnered international acclaim for their exceptional products, with many of their whiskies receiving top awards in global competitions. They continue to be at the forefront of the Australian whisky industry, pushing boundaries and setting new standards for quality and innovation.

Lark's most awarded single malt

Lark Classic Cask Single Malt 43% (500ml)

Handcrafted at Lark's Coal Valley Distillery. Based on the original recipe from the founder and Tasmanian whisky pioneer Bill Lark. Double-distilled and aged in a considered selection of small casks. Approachable but complex. Toffee apple with crisp citrus and custard, with time a subtle floral oak reveals itself. Fruity malt and rich plum pudding, with developing apple crumble and red berries. Viscous and desert driven, with a crescendo old tawny oak. This is Lark's most awarded single malt.

The inaugural legacy release

Lark Legacy Cask One HHF582B (500ml) VERY LIMITED 1 PER CUSTOMER

This 19-year-old single malt was crafted during Bill Lark's tenure as Head Distiller at a renowned Tasmanian distillery. For nearly two decades this precious spirit was nurtured, soaking up complexity and history under the careful watch of Bill. Nineteen years later, the result is this inaugural Legacy release; two bottlings containing some of the rarest, oldest single malts ever to emerge from the House of Lark. A rich testament to the care and craftsmanship of Bill Lark that captures the spirit of his original pioneering vision, a Tasmanian legacy that will endure for years to come. Sold out on release in an instant. In fact, we hear that Lark customer members had to go into a ballot just to have an opportunity to buy this, such was the demand and it's rarity.
