Ancient Rome ruled Europe for approximately 1,000 years. Before that time, the history of Rome is not quite known. Sometimes the stories are based on history while other stories are based on _____. Historians have determined that Rome began around 1,000 BC on the Palatine Hill. Six other hills were settled as well: the Aventine, Caelian, Capitol, Esquiline, Quirinal, and Viminal. Augustus, Mark Antony, Cicero and the most wealthy and famous Romans eventually settled in Rome, Italy. Mythology states that the twins Remus and Romulus founded Rome in 753 BC. The myth highlights how Romulus killed Remus and became the first king of Rome. Some think the name Rome comes from Romulus' name. The first settlers in Rome included Latin people. Greeks, Etruscans & Sabines settled in Rome too.
