MARSHALL ISLANDS: People begin to prepare for Christmas in April. On Christmas Day Jeptas, or teams, hold singing and dancing competitions. The Jeptas practice for months. They hold parties which hold little presents such as...

RUSSIA: Christmas in Russia is not really celebrated on the 25th. They know Santa Claus as Grandfather Frost. He delivers presents at midnight on New Year's Eve. People commonly eat 'sochivo' or 'kutia' - a porridge made of wheat or rice. Kutia is sometimes eaten in one common bowl, to symbolize unity.

SLOVAKIA: In Slovakia, Santa is known as Svätý Mikuláš. One tradition is to clean the house and windows to get ready for Christmas. Another tradition is for the oldest male of the family to take a spoonful of pudding and throw it on the ceiling. The more that sticks, the better the luck in the year to come. Christmas dinner begins with 'Oplatky' - small bread wafers and a blessing.
