6 PASSAGES

Students will read 6 short passages about the topic, then answer questions.

The American Revolution began in 1775 with the Battles of Lexington and Concord. This fight was for independence of the American colonies from British rule. There were few people who wanted to fight for this freedom. Most were still loyal to King George III and did not want to join the fight, rather, they wanted things to stay the same. Patrick Henry showed great interest in this movement and wanted America to be an independent country, free from the rule of a king. Events such as the taxation by Parliament (Britain's government), the Boston Massacre (1770), and the Boston Tea Party (1773) caused tension in the colonies for years. Patriotic groups like the Sons of Liberty were groups of colonists that first formed in 1764. They protested against Britain and the unfair laws they forced on the American colonists.
