FILL IN THE BLANK

Directions: Drag the correct word to complete the sentence.

Get to know the candidate and what they stand for. What kind of changes do they want to make? Who sponsors them? Who do they support? A voter guide will highlight research information on the candidates in addition to their experience and background. Never rely on television commercials as your only source of negatives when choosing a candidate. Often times, commercials simply dredge up match on the opposing candidates. First, figure out what YOUR values are. What triggers you or what goals interest you the most? What problems do you wish you could solve? Now, look for a candidate that will align those values. Check out their politics, character, beliefs, knowledge on the issues, consistency, proof, what they say about each other.
