The posters, worksheets, and reflection task cards can be a part of the décor OR you can just use them to build a positive classroom community.

Bulletin Board + Classroom Management Set

You don't have to use these letters on a bulletin board. I've used them on the wall across the front of my classroom as a permanent "class motto."

This set only contains letters that spell "Play Nice, Work Hard, Stay Kind."

You can arrange this phrase in any order you want.

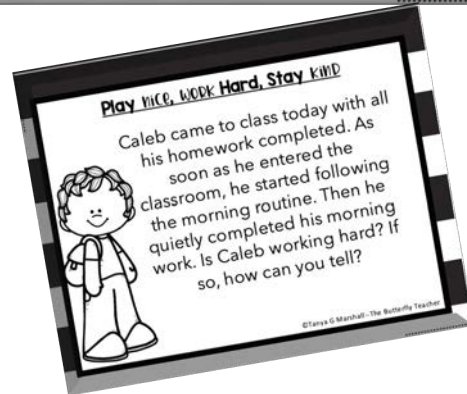

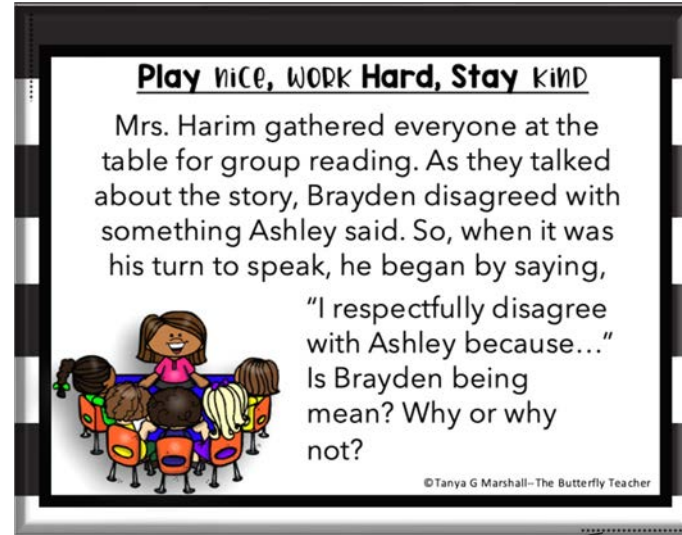

Or you can break the phrase apart to display separately around your classroom.

These letters can also serve as door décor.

★ Not Just for Teachers:

“I have huge high windows in the library and this resource stayed up all year to inspire the students in the hallway. It just happened to coordinate with the principal's message to the students for the start of the school year... so that was a big plus!”
